POLICY PRINCIPLES

1. OVERVIEW

UTS Insearch Sri Lanka collects, holds, uses and discloses personal information to perform its core functions and activities, including, for example:

- student recruitment;
- student applications and admissions;
- teaching and administration of education programs;
- student administration, accommodation, welfare and academic support;
- management of students' progression to university;
- human resources management; and
- business analysis and management.

We may also collect, hold, use and disclose personal information for other purposes explained at the time of collection, or required or authorised by law.

2. COLLECTION OF PERSONAL INFORMATION

The main way UTS Insearch Sri Lanka collects personal information about you is when you give it directly to us, such as when you:

- contact us to ask for information;
- register at events;
- apply to study with UTS Insearch Sri Lanka;
- enrol at UTS Insearch Sri Lanka; and/or
- apply for a job with UTS Insearch Sri Lanka.

Collecting sensitive information

Sometimes we may need to collect sensitive information about you, e.g. to enable us to provide an appropriate teaching and learning or work environment to meet the diverse abilities, needs and circumstances of our students and staff.

Collecting personal information for security purposes [fact check]

We collect personal information through clearly visible CCTV cameras when you visit the UTS Insearch Sri Lanka campus and from UTS Insearch Sri Lanka's contracted security guards. We also collect personal information by monitoring and recording the information input or output, or other use, of UTS Insearch Sri Lanka's computer network and devices.

Indirect collection

We may collect personal information (including sensitive information) about you indirectly from third parties such as:

- direct marketing database providers;
- enquiry management providers;
- health professionals who assist us to provide accessible teaching and learning or work environments;
- international education agents;
- organisations that assist us to verify or supplement information collected in student application forms;

- student accommodation [fact check] and welfare providers;
- sponsoring organisations, including UTS in relation to student scholarship applicants; and
- organisations, government departments and/or individuals that assist us to assess, verify or supplement information provided in job applications, e.g. by providing references or conducting psychometric assessments.

Where UTS Insearch Sri Lanka collects information about you from a third party, we will take reasonable steps to make you aware of the fact and circumstances of the collection.

Anonymity

Where possible on request, UTS Insearch Sri Lanka will allow you to interact with us anonymously or using a pseudonym, e.g. if you phone our Enquiries helpline with a general question, we may be able to handle your question without taking your name.

However, for most of our functions and activities we need your name and contact information and enough information about the particular matter to enable us to handle your enquiry, application, request or complaint.

Collecting through our websites and through social media services

UTS Insearch Sri Lanka has its own website: [insearch.edu.sl]. Please refer to the Website privacy notice for details of the information that is collected through our website (including on electronic forms) and through social media services. When you communicate with us through a social media service, the social media provider and its partners may collect and hold your personal information overseas.

3. DISCLOSURE OF PERSONAL INFORMATION

UTS Insearch Sri Lanka recruits students and staff. Common situations in which we disclose information (including sensitive information) overseas and to third parties are listed below:

- to other education providers involved with UTS Insearch Sri Lanka, to perform our core functions and activities, including to Insearch Limited in Australia;
- to government, regulatory and professional bodies, to fulfil UTS Insearch Sri Lanka's legal and regulatory obligations;
- to your migration agent, if you are applying for a visa;
- to financial institutions for payment processing;
- to universities (such as UTS) and the Universities Admissions Centre Pty Limited;
- to a student's sponsoring organisation in connection with the student's application, whereabouts, current enrolment status, academic record and whether they progress to UTS;
- to a student's education agent in connection with the student's application, whereabouts, current enrolment status, confirmation of term/semester completion and whether they progress to UTS; and
- to a student's emergency contact in connection with their whereabouts or safety.

Other than as set out above, once a student has enrolled, UTS Insearch Sri Lanka does not disclose their personal information to education agents, sponsoring organisation or to their parents without the student's consent.

UTS Insearch Sri Lanka also uses a number of service providers to whom we disclose personal information.

4. STORAGE AND SECURITY OF PERSONAL INFORMATION

UTS Insearch Sri Lanka takes steps to protect the security of the personal information we hold from both internal and external threats by:

- regularly assessing the risk of misuse, interference, loss, and unauthorised access, modification or disclosure of that information;
- taking measures to address those risks, e.g. using information security technologies and maintaining secure access to our offices; and
- implementing workplace policies to support information security.

5. ACCESSING AND CORRECTING PERSONAL INFORMATION

You have the right to ask for access to personal information that UTS Insearch Sri Lanka holds about you, and to ask that we correct or update that personal information. Staff can ask for access or correction by emailing enquiries@inseacrch.edu.sl. Prospective, current or past students, or other individuals can write to or email the Privacy Officer, using the contact details in section 8 below.

UTS Insearch Sri Lanka will ask you to verify your identity before we give you access to your personal information or correct it, and we will try to make the process as simple as possible. UTS Insearch Sri Lanka will respond to access or correction requests within 30 days. We may charge a fee to cover our reasonable costs of locating and providing your personal information.

If you ask, we will ordinarily give you access to your personal information, and take reasonable steps to correct it if we consider it is incorrect, unless there is a law that requires us not to. If we refuse to give you access to, or correct, your personal information, we will notify you in writing setting out the reasons.

If we make a correction and we have disclosed the incorrect personal information to others, you can ask us to tell them about the correction. We will do so unless there is a valid reason not to.

6. HOW TO MAKE A COMPLAINT

If you wish to complain to us about how UTS Insearch Sri Lanka has handled your personal information, please email or write to the Privacy Officer, using the contact details in section 8 below. Please provide details of the date, time and circumstances of the complaint, and a proposal on how best to resolve the complaint.

The Privacy Officer will normally acknowledge receipt of your complaint within five business days, then complete an investigation and respond to your complaint within 30 days. UTS Insearch Sri Lanka will determine what (if any action) we should take to resolve the complaint. If the matter is complex and the investigation will take longer, the Privacy Officer will write to let you know, with an estimate of when UTS Insearch Sri Lanka expects to be able to respond.
